

HOW WE WORK

Local People. Local Solutions. Lasting Impact.

United Way of Randolph County brings people, resources, and local partners together to solve our community's biggest challenges.

We listen, learn, invest, and advocate for programs and policies that make a real difference. Instead of focusing on just one issue, we support solutions that strengthen our entire community—from helping children succeed in school to supporting families in times of crisis.

Through our community investment process, local volunteers carefully review applications from partner agencies, evaluate needs, and ensure funding is directed to programs that deliver real, measurable impact. This thoughtful approach helps us make the most of every dollar and ensures your support is creating lasting change right here in Randolph County.

We also make it easy for you to give back. By bringing together community knowledge and trusted partners, we distribute donations where they are needed most—so your single gift can have the greatest possible impact.

This is how your donation is distributed—supporting a network of local programs—unless you choose to designate your gift to a specific 501(c)(3) agency.
