

Everyone Deserves An Opportunity to Live Their Healthiest Life

United Way Improves Access To

- Healthy foods
- Safe opportunities for physical and social activity
- Quality health care
- Services helping the elderly remain active, independent, and safe

- With In-home care and minor home-repair services from Regional Consolidated Services, 109 clients can continue living safely and independently in their own homes.
- YMCA scholarships made it possible for 20 children to experience the joy of summer camp.
- With meals, transportation, Medicare Options counseling, social activities, and respite adult day care, Randolph Senior Adults Association offered a better quality of life to 5,111 people.

After losing his beloved wife, a cherished Meals on Wheels participant faced the daunting task of living life alone.

Meals on Wheels continues to assure him of a warm, nutritious meal each day—often the only one he eats.

More than just food, the visits from the volunteers who deliver also bring much needed friendly faces and conversation that brighten his day.

He knows that he is cared for and remembered.

Communities That Are Prepared for Emergencies Can Build a Secure Future

United Way Services Step in With

- Help and hope
- Disaster relief and recovery
- Crisis hotlines and support

- The American Red Cross Disaster Team provides disaster victims with emergency food, shelter, clothing, and medicines, and guides them through the months-long recovery.
- As well as medical emergency and automobile accident response, Ash-Rand Rescue & EMS personnel are certified in wilderness, swift-water, industrial, and high or low-angle rescue.
- NC211 Crisis Hotline offers free and confidential local information on emergency counseling, disaster assistance, food, health care, insurance, stable housing, employment services, veterans services, and family services.

Improving Lives Every Day

UNITED WAY
Randolph County

Every Young Person Deserves The Opportunity To Thrive

Every Person Deserves The Opportunity To Become Self-sustaining and Financially Secure

United Way Supports

- Quality childcare and early childhood education
- Essential literacy skills
- After school and summer enrichment opportunities
- College and career readiness
- Family engagement

- This year, 873 students depended on CIS Backpack Pals for food each weekend. Another 566 received much needed encouragement and support from caring mentors.
- Central Boys and Girls Club offers after school mentoring, homework assistance, tutoring, and technology assistance to more than 200 students, ages 6-18.
- In county-wide 4-H Science and Agriculture programs, 12,918 students learned to put their STEM skills to practical use.
- Scouting America helps 197 local Scouts learn valuable life skills, leadership, environmental stewardship, and self-reliance.
- The Partnership for Children served 384 children, from birth through age 5, with quality child care, school readiness, and early literacy programs.

Workforce Development is a gateway to opportunity.

The Boys and Girls Club partners with Ross Dress for Less to give teen club members experience in a real workplace environment. They learn what it means to show up, work with others, and develop a good work ethic.

Club members begin to see themselves as capable, employable, and headed toward successful careers.

United Way Helps People Gain

- Knowledge and skills to manage income and savings
- Skills and education for good-paying jobs that can sustain a family
- Security through home-ownership

- Christians United Outreach Center Crisis Intervention Services offered 13,602 people short-term assistance with food, clothing, and safe shelter, and helped with rent, transportation, and utility payments. CUOC also offered financial management classes to help clients learn to budget and manage their money and become less aid-dependent.
- Guidance and help from The Salvation Army Financial Crisis Program helped 25,720 people avoid being evicted or having their water or electrical services disconnected.

CUOC's Emergency Assistance cleared the way for her to be permanently employed again.

Tymesha was a resilient single mother of four and a dedicated personal aide.

When her car insurance and registration lapsed, she lost her job because she had no way to reach her multiple clients.

CUOC's Emergency Assistance covered her insurance and registration fees, and now she's back on the road and can accept the new job offer.

